The diagram illustrates two source functions on the left pointing to a single target function on the right. The top source function is 'cl_nav2z::CbPauseSlam::onEntry' and the bottom source function is 'cl_nav2z::CbResumeSlam::onEntry'. Both are enclosed in white rectangular boxes with black borders. Blue arrows point from the right side of each source box to the left side of the target box. The target box, 'smacc2::client_behaviors::CbServiceCall::onEntry', is shaded gray and also has a black border.
